

Rockie Awards Judging Terms & Conditions

As a Juror for the BANFF World Media Festival's Rockie Awards program competition,

1. I will uphold the privacy of the material I am viewing as some of it may not yet be released in all markets;
2. I will keep confidential the titles of all entries I am judging as nominees may not yet be announced publicly;
3. I will view enough of each entry to judge fairly against all other submissions;
4. While I am aware that BANFF and the Rockie Awards do their utmost to ensure I am not judging material with which I have a direct or obvious conflict-of-interest, should I somehow have access to vote on any material with which I am professionally or personally connected or affiliated, I will choose to abstain from voting;
5. I understand that should the festival learn of a judge voting on an entry where the evidence of a conflict-of-interest is clear and absolute, BANFF and the Rockie Awards reserve the right eliminate that judge's scoring;
6. I understand that at their sole discretion, BANFF and the Rockie Awards may disqualify any juror or submission at any stage. In the event of such disqualification, the decision is irrevocable and there is no refund of entry or registration fees.
